

ICEBREAKER

Time: Sep. 6, 11:20-12:20

- Participants are divided into 15 groups (about 10/group)
- Each group is lead by an Organizer
- Participants will introduce themselves using Two A4-size introductory papers*
- Using the papers, each participant gives a two minute presentation
- Participants to bring 15 copies of the introductory paper on the day of summer school

*First paper to introduce yourself, second paper to introduce your research. See following example.

Maya Kobayashi (Program Coordinator, RPAS)

EXAMPLE

I'm from Kenya!

My job is:
Program Coordinator for IPA program

- ✓ Organize calls/screenings
- ✓ Manage personnel procedures
- ✓ Supervise/approve payments
- ✓ Make Agreements with collaborating organizations
- ✓ Work as a contact point between various offices in & out of RIKEN
- ✓ Run RIKEN Summer School
- ✓ Promote our programs for young researchers
- ✓ Suggest changes to better the program

Occasionally lend a shoulder to cry on?